4. Register of Members

- 4.1 The names of all individual members shall be entered on the Register of the Institute, hereinafter referred to as “the Register”.
- 4.2 A member who changes his name shall inform the Secretary in order that the appropriate amendment may be made.
- 4.3 Membership of the Institute shall cease if the member dies, is certified to be of unsound mind, is formally declared to be personally bankrupt, is found to be guilty of “improper conduct” or where the member’s subscriptions remain unpaid for 6 months beyond the due date.

5. Applications for Membership

- 5.1 It shall be a condition to the admission of every applicant that his application or recommendation contains no untrue or misleading statement relating to himself. The application of any such person may be set aside by a resolution of the Council expressing the belief that the particulars given in the application or recommendation were in some respect untrue or misleading and declaring such admission to be terminated. However, the person so concerned shall be notified of the intention to propose any such resolution and the Council shall consider any statement or explanation regarding the matter in question which such person may think fit to give, either orally or in writing at his option. The Council shall make such other investigation as it may think proper; such statement or explanation shall be made within one calendar month of the date on which the Council gives notice of the proceedings.
- 5.2 An application, made in accordance with the first paragraph of this Rule, shall be delivered to the Secretary. The Secretary shall examine the application, and advise the applicant of which grade of membership they are eligible for. If necessary, the Council may review the application, and within their powers as set down in the Rules, recommend that a variation to the grade of application be made.
- 5.3 Every person duly admitted as a Fellow, Member, Associate, Entrant, or Affiliate shall be informed thereof without undue delay. Every person so admitted shall pay the annual subscription fee, upon receipt of which their membership shall commence.

6. Transfer Between Grades

- 6.1 Every application for transfer between grades shall be formally proposed and managed as given in Rule 5.

7. Fees and Subscriptions

- 7.1 The annual subscriptions, administration fees and entrance fees payable by individual members shall be: -
 - (i) at rates determined by resolution of the Council and announced at the AGM
 - (ii) paid by established banking procedures which shall be determined by the Council.
- 7.2 Individual members over 55 years of age and who have retired from active working life may pay a reduced annual subscription as determined by the Council from time to time.
- 7.3 All annual subscriptions shall be due on 1st May in each year. The acceptance of an annual subscription from a person to be an individual member shall not create any presumptions as to membership of the Institute.
- 7.4 The first annual subscription of any individual member admitted between 1st of January and 30th April in any year shall be in respect of the year commencing on the 1st May next ensuing.
- 7.5 Every individual member shall be liable for the payment of their annual subscription until they have signified to the Secretary in writing their desire to resign. Resignation shall only be accepted when the said member has paid all arrears, including the subscription for the year current at the date of their notice. Failure to amend arrears shall result in dismissal and shall be recorded as such, thus preventing re-admission.
- 7.6 Any member whose subscription for the current year shall not have been paid by 31st May shall be sent a final reminder by the Secretary and shall not be entitled to vote at any General Meeting until one month after such subscription has been paid.
- 7.7 Individuals who have completed the RSPH Level 4 Certificate in Asbestos Laboratory and Project Management shall be entitled to one year of Full Membership free of charge, to commence upon completion of the qualification. Subsequent subscriptions shall be administered in accordance with the Rules as specified in this section.
- 7.8 Individuals who have completed the RSPH Level 3 Award in Asbestos Surveying, RSPH Level 3 Award in Air Monitoring and Clearance Procedures or RSPH Level 3 Bulk Analysis shall be entitled to one year of Technician Grade Membership free of charge, to commence upon completion of the qualification. Subsequent subscriptions shall be administered in accordance with the Rules as specified in this section.

8. Professional Conduct, Disciplinary Rules and Remedies

- 8.1 The Institute requires that:
- (i) All individual members are required to conduct themselves so as to uphold the dignity, standing and reputation of the Institute.
 - (ii) All individual members shall support and promote the Institute.
 - (iii) No person who has ceased to be on the Register is entitled to make use of any designation implying connection with the Institute.
 - (iv) All individual members shall make full and regular payment of fees and subscriptions in line with Rule 7 or as may be required by Council review or amendment from time to time.
- 8.2 Improper conduct shall mean any breach of the provisions of these Rules or any other conduct, by act or omission, which shall indicate unfitness to be a member, or shall otherwise be considered unfitting, by the Council.
- 8.3 Any member who shall be convicted by a competent Tribunal of a criminal offence which in the opinion of the Council, render him / her unfit to be a member shall be deemed to have been guilty of improper conduct.
- 8.4 Allegations of improper conduct shall be first brought before the Council, who shall, on the basis of preliminary information determine whether a full investigation shall be held. The enquiry shall be held at the earliest opportunity following the allegation being brought to the Council.
- 8.5 The member shall be given notice of the allegations brought against him / her and of the procedure, where applicable, for a full enquiry. All communications, meetings, proceedings, and decisions shall be recorded in writing and shall be presented to the member at the earliest opportunity.
- 8.6 The member shall be given reasonable time and opportunity to prepare his / her defence / case and to present same to the enquiry.
- 8.7 The enquiry shall be conducted by a Board of Enquiry consisting of: -
- (i) Chairperson or their Nominee in absence
 - (ii) Secretary (non-voting)
 - (iii) 4 other Council Members or Fellows selected by the Council.
- 8.8 A Board of Appeal shall be convened where the result of the enquiry and the penalty exercised is appealed against by the member accused comprising:
- (i) Deputy-Chairperson or their Nominee in absence
 - (ii) 2 other Council members selected by the Council (not being those selected for the Board of Enquiry)
- 8.9 Upon hearing all the evidence put before them the decisions of the Board of Enquiry and the Board of Appeal shall be taken on a two thirds majority or greater. Findings shall be brought before the Council for ratification and all matters shall be conveyed to the member in writing at the earliest opportunity.
- 8.10 Legal advice shall, where required, be sought from a practicing solicitor appointed by the Boards.
- 8.11 Leading Counsel shall be appointed only by the agreement of both parties.
- 8.12 Where a case is found against the member reasonable costs for the enquiry shall be borne by him/her or otherwise by the Institute.
- 8.13 The Council reserves the right to determine and impose sanctions or remedies against any member found guilty of improper conduct up to and including dismissal from the membership.

9. Use of the AMI Logo

- 9.1. The AMI logo is a collective mark. A Collective mark distinguishes the goods and services of members of the association, which is the proprietor of the mark, from those of other undertakings. All members (Affiliates, Members and Fellows) of the Asbestos Management Institute (AMI) are authorised to use the AMI logo subject to the requirements of these rules. A list of all current members of the Institute can be accessed at www.ami.uk.com
- 9.2. It is a condition of use that the Mark may only be used after and adjacent to the name of a member of the institute, where post nominal' s have been used to indicate the grade of membership held by the person using the Mark.
- 9.3. It is a condition of use that the Mark may not be used:
 - i) in a manner likely to be taken as indicating that the person using the Mark is an Agent of the Institute
 - ii) in a manner more prominent than the name or trading style of the person using the Mark
- 9.4. Any member found to be using the AMI logo in contravention of these bye laws will be referred to the board who will decide upon what action to take. Depending upon the severity of the misuse of the logo the board may impose any sanction it feels appropriate ranging from requiring the member to rectify any misuse of the AMI logo, and to demonstrate that this has been done, to expulsion from the Institute.

10. Conflicts of Interest

- 10.1 Where a conflict arises, or may arise, between the interests of a member or his partners, fellow directors, associates or employees, and the interests of a client, the member shall:
 - (i) disclose to the client, promptly, the relevant facts.
 - (ii) inform the client that neither he personally, nor his company or firm, can act or continue to act for the client unless, having been advised of all the relevant facts, the client requests him to do so, in writing and the client has been advised by the member, in writing, to obtain other independent professional advice or assistance.
 - (iii) confirm the position in writing, to the client, copied to the Institute.
